The Academic Hymnal

A COLLECTION OF HYMNS AND CHANTS WITH TUNES HARMONIZED
FOR MEN'S VOICES AND IN UNISON

Specially designed for use in College Chapels

New York, G. Schirmer

Copyright, 1899, by G. SCHIRMER

The general copyright claim of the publishers covers the compilation of hymns and the harmonization of all of the tunes and chants ; the hymns by Epiphanius Wilson and the tunes by Homer N. Bartlett, John Hyatt Brewer, Frank Seymour Hastings, C. B. Hawley, Reginald DeKoven, H. W. Nicholl, Harry Rowe Shelley, Max Spicker and Max Vogrich, are protected by special copyright.

Publishers' Note

The compilation of the ACADEMIC HYMNAL was suggested by the requirements of college chapels for which no adequate provision appears to have been made in the extensive range of hymnology.

The harmonizations in the hymnals generally used in college chapels are for mixed voices, and, as every musician knows, entirely useless for men's voices. The one or two collections for men's voices that exist are in so many respects inadequate, that the publishers feel justified in issuing the present work, to which they have been urged and encouraged by correspondents throughout the country.

The chief collaborators in the Academic Hymnal were Charles B. Hawley, J. Hyatt Brewer, H. W. Nicholl and Max Vogrich, and the publishers are also indebted to Harry Rowe Shelley, Gerrit Smith, Horatio W. Parker, Homer N. Bartlett and others for valuable suggestions.

A practical difficulty considered at the outset was the fact that a large number of the student body are unable to read music, and when these join in the singing usually reinforce the melody throughout. This made it desirable to put the melody in as low a key as the compass of each tune permitted, and thus it will be found that most are within easy reach of the average voice. In a few cases, however, the limitations of the basses had to be considered in the harmonization, and the melody range is necessarily so high as to place some notes of the tune beyond the reach of the majority of amateur tenors. The impossibility of entirely obviating this difficulty will be readily recognized by ordinary musicians.

A special feature of this hymnal, which should commend itself by reason of its general usefulness, consists in the large number of hymns that have been arranged for voices in unison, with special harmonizations for the organ. These arrangements are by Mr. Nicholl and Mr. Vogrich, the latter contributing several of the old German Chorales, most of them being new to English hymnology.

In order to secure for the book the widest circulation, single and double chants and other music with the words necessary for the various services of the Protestant Episcopal Church and its colleges, have been included. These have been placed altogether at the end of the volume.

It is offered as a practical suggestion that when two hymns are included in the service, the first should be sung as harmonized (preferably unaccompanied), and the second in unison with the special organ accompaniment. When the organ accompanies harmonized tunes, the following suggestions will be useful to non-professional organists. When eight-foot stops are used, the tenor parts should be played an octave lower than printed; when sixteen-foot stops, the bass parts should be played an octave higher.

A large number of the hymns will be recognized as standard favorites that could not be omitted from any collection. To these have been added a sufficient variety suited to the different days of the Christian Year and special occasions. The index of subjects will be found to be a very useful guide to the special bearing of each hymn.

Included in the Academic Hymnal are a number of tunes specially written for the work, and thus not to be found in any other book.

F. GIARDINI. 1769.

1. Come, Thou al - mighty - y King, Help us Thy name to sing,

Help us to praise! Fa - ther all - glo - ri - ous, O'er all vic - to - ri - ous,

Come and reign o - ver us, An - cient of Days! A - - - men.

2 Come, Thou Incarnate Word,
Gird on Thy mighty sword;
Our prayer attend!
Come, and Thy people bless,
And give Thy word success:
Spirit of holiness,
On us descend!

3 Come, Holy Comforter,
Thy sacred witness bear,
In this glad hour!
Thou, who almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of power!

4 To Thee, great One in Three
The highest praises be,
Hence evermore;
Thy sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore.

C. Wesley. 1757.

f Marcato.

1. The Son of God goes forth to war, A king - ly crown to gain, .

His blood - red ban - ner streams a - far: Who fol - lows in His train?

Who best can drink His cup of woe, Tri - umph - ant o - ver pain;..

Who pa - tient bears His cross be - low, He fol - lows in His train. A - men.

2 The martyr first, whose eagle eye
Could pierce beyond the grave;
Who saw his Master in the sky,
And called on Him to save.
Like Him, with pardon on His tongue,
In midst of mortal pain,
He prayed for them that did the wrong:
Who follows in His train?

3 A noble army: men and boys,
The matron and the maid;
Around the Saviour's throne rejoice,
In robes of light arrayed.
They climbed the steep ascent of heaven
Through peril, toil, and pain;
O God, to us may grace be given
To follow in their train.

2 When temptation's darts assail us,
When in devious paths we stray,
Let Thy goodness never fail us,

In the hour when death draws near,
Suffer not our hearts to languish,—
Suffer not our souls to fear.

4 And, when mortal life is ended,
Bid us on Thy bosom rest.
Till, by angel-bands attended,
We awake among the blest.

VESPER HYMN. 8s, 7s. 81.

D. S. BORTNIANSKY. (1751—1825.)

1. Sav-iour, breathe an ev-'ning bless-ing Ere re - pose our spir - its seal.

Sin and want we come con - fess - ing; Thou canst save and Thou canst heal.

Though the night be dark and drear - y, Dark-ness can - not hide from Thee,

Thou art He who, nev - er wea - ry, Watchest where Thy peo - ple be. A - men.

2 Though destruction walk around us,
Though the arrows past us fly,
Angel guards from Thee surround us;
We are safe if Thou art nigh.
Should swift death this night o'ertake us,
And our couch become our tomb,
May the morn in heaven awake us,
Clad in bright and deathless bloom.

3 Father, to Thy holy keeping
Humbly we ourselves resign;
Saviour, who hast slept our sleeping,
Make our slumbers pure as Thine;
Blessed Spirit, brooding o'er us,
Chase the darkness of our night,
Till the perfect day before us
Breaks in everlasting light.

com-forts flee; Help of the help-less, Oh, a - bide with me. A - men.

2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see:
O Thou, who changest not, abide with me!

3 I need Thy presence every passing hour:
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, oh, abide with me!

4 I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

5 Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies.
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee—
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me!

8 TALLIS' CANON. L. M.

T. TALLIS. 1565.

1. All praise to Thee, my God this night, For all the bless-ings of the light,

Keep me, oh keep me, King of kings, Be-neath Thine own - light-y wings. A-men.

- 2 Forgive me, Lord, for Thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done ;
That with the world, myself, and Thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.
- 3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed ;
Teach me to die, that so I may Rise glorious at the awful day.
- 4 Oh, may my soul on Thee repose,
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close :
Sleep that shall me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.
- 5 When in the night I sleepless lie,
My soul with heavenly thoughts supply ;
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.
- 6 Oh, when shall I, in endless day,
For ever chase dark sleep away.
And hymns divine with angels sing,
All praise to Thee, eternal King !
- 7 Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow :
Praise Him, all creatures here below ;
Praise Him above, angelic host :
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Be - fore Thy throne, O Lord of heav'n, We kneel at close of day;..

Look on Thy chil-dren from on high, And hear us while we pray. A - men.

- 2 The sorrows of Thy servants, Lord,
 Oh, do not Thou despise,
 But let the incense of our prayers
 Before Thy mercy rise.
 The brightness of the coming night
 Upon the darkness rolls;
 With hopes of future glory chase
 The shadows on our souls.
- 3 Slowly the rays of daylight fade
 So fade within our heart
 The hopes in earthly love and joy,
 That one by one depart.

- Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
 Within the heavens shine:
 Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in heaven,
 And trust in things divine.
- 4 Let peace, O Lord, Thy peace, O God,
 Upon our souls descend:
 From midnight fears, and perils, Thou
 Our trembling hearts defend:
 Give us a respite from our toil;
 Calm and subdue our woes;
 Through the long day we labor, Lord,
 Oh, give us now repose.

Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow!
Look now, for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing:
Oh, rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

4 For lo! the days are hastening on,
By prophet-bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Shall come the age of gold:
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendors fling,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing.

 Hear our solemn litany!

The first system of musical notation for the hymn. It consists of a treble and a bass staff in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

glo - ri - fy, A nev - er dy - ing soul to save,

The second system of musical notation, continuing the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The lyrics continue below the treble staff.

And fit it... for the sky. A - - - en.

The third system of musical notation, concluding the first part of the hymn. The melody ends with a double bar line, and the accompaniment continues for a few measures before also ending. The lyrics conclude with 'A - - - en.'

- 2 To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfill;
Oh, may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will.
- 3 Arm me with jealous care,
As in Thy sight to live,
And oh, Thy servant, Lord, prepare
A strict account to give!
- 4 Help me to watch and pray,
And on Thyself rely.
Assured, if I my trust betray,
I shall forever die.

And gladly, as Thou blestest us,

We do it unto Thee.

It gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.

3 We share our mutual woes;
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

5 This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way;

2 Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation,
One Lord, one Faith, one Birth;
One holy Name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.

3 Though with a scornful wonder
Men see her sore oppress,
By schisms rent asunder,
By heresies distrest;
Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up "How long?"
And soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song.

4 'Mid toil and tribulation,
And tumult of her war
She waits the consummation
Of peace for evermore;
Till with the vision glorious
Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious
Shall be the Church at rest.

5 Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won:
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with Thee.

May Jesus Christ be praised!

May Jesus Christ be praised!
This song of sacred joy,
It never seems to cloy,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

My silent spirit sighs,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
When evil thoughts molest,
With this I shield my breast,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

5 Does sadness fill my mind,
A solace here I find,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

Or fades my earthly bliss,
My comfort still is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

6 The night becomes as day,
When from the heart we say,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
The powers of darkness fear,
When this sweet chant they hear,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

7 In heaven's eternal bliss
The loveliest strain is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Let earth, and sea, and sky
From depth to height reply,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

8 Be this, while life is mine,
My canticle divine,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Be this the eternal song
Through ages all along,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

75 CHRISTMAS. C. M.

G. F. HÄNDEL.

f

1. A - wake, my soul, stretch ev - ery nerve; And press with f vig - or... on;... A... heav'n - ly race de - mands Thy zeal,
 And an im - mor - tal crown, And an im - mor - tal crown. A - men.

- 2 A cloud of witnesses around
Hold thee in full survey;
Forget the steps already trod,
And onward urge thy way.
- 3 'Tis God's all-animating voice
That calls thee from on high;
'Tis His own hand presents the prize
To thine uplifted eye:

- 4 That prize with peerless glories bright,
Which shall new lustre boast,
When victors' wreaths and monarchs'
Shall blend in common dust. [gems]
- 5 Blest Saviour, introduced by Thee,
Have I my race begun;
And, crowned with victory, at Thy feet
I'll lay my honors down.

P. Doddridge. 1755.

76 Tune—CHRISTMAS.

- 1 O Thou, from whom all goodness flows,
I lift my heart to Thee;
In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes,
Good Lord, remember me.
- 2 When on my aching, burdened heart
My sins lie heavily,
Thy pardon speak, new peace impart;
Good Lord, remember me.
- 3 When trials sore obstruct my way,
And ills I cannot flee,

- Oh, let my strength be as my day;
Good Lord, remember me.
- 4 When worn with pain, disease, and grief,
This feeble body see;
Grant patience, rest, and kind relief;
Good Lord, remember me.
- 5 When, in the solemn hour of death,
I wait Thy just decree,
Be this the prayer of my last breath,
Good Lord, remember me.

Thee, And Thy re - fresh - ing grace. ... A - - men.

2 For Thee, my God, the living God,
My thirsty soul doth pine:
O, when shall I behold Thy face,
Thou Majesty divine!

4 God of my strength, how long shall I,
Like one forgotten, mourn.
Forlorn, forsaken, and exposed
To my oppressor's scorn?

3 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Trust God, who will employ
His aid for thee, and change these sighs
To thankful hymns of joy.

5 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Hope still; and thou shalt sing
The praise of Him who is Thy God,
Thy health's eternal spring.

Tune—SPOHR.

1 I do not ask that life may be,
O Lord, a pleasant road:
Nor that Thou wouldest take from me,
Aught of its weary load.

2 For one thing chiefly do I plead,
Dear Lord, lead me aright: [bleed,
Thou' strength should fail, and heart should Lead me through peace to light.

3 I do not ask to understand
My cross, my way to see:
Let me, in darkness, feel Thy hand,
And simply follow Thee.

4 Joy is like day, but peace divine
May rule the quiet night:
Lead me, till perfect day shall shine,
O Lord, through peace to light.

Our help-er He, a-mid the flood Of mor-tal ills pre-vail-ing.

For still our an-cient foe Doth seek to work us woe; His craft and pow'r are great,

Should threaten to undo us,
We will not fear, for God hath willed
His truth to triumph through us.
The Prince of darkness grim,
We tremble not for him;
His rage we can endure,
For lo! his doom is sure:
One little word shall fell him..

4 That word above all earthly powers,
No thanks to them, abideth;
The Spirit and the gifts are ours
Through Him who with us sideth.
Let goods and kindred go,
This mortal life also;
The body they may kill;
God's truth abideth still.
His Kingdom is for ever.

Evening and morning hymn Thy praise,

Thy clouds drop wealth the world around;
Through Thee the deserts laugh and sing,
And Nature smiles, and owns her King.

Tune—GERMANY.

1 My God, permit me not to be
A stranger to myself and Thee:
Amidst a thousand thoughts I rove,
Forgetful of my highest love.

2 Why should my passions mix with earth,
And thus debase my heavenly birth?

Why should I cleave to things below,
And all my purest joys forego?

3 Call me away from flesh and sense:
Thy grace, O Lord, can draw me thence:
I would obey the voice divine,
And all inferior joys resign.

 Foes may hate, and friends may shun me;

 In Thy service, pain is pleasure;
 With Thy favor, loss is gain.

 Storms may howl, and clouds may gather,
 All must work for good to me.

 Life with trials hard may press me,
 Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.

Name all other names above!
Unto which must every knee
Bow in deep humility.

Kneeling in her lowly cell,

Given to the holy Child,
When the cup of human woe
First He tasted here below.

Under all the mighty heaven,
Whereby man, to sin enslaved,
Bursts his fetters, and is saved.

Human name of God above:
Pleading only this we flee,
Helpless, O our God, to Thee.

1 It may not be our lot to wield
The sickle in the ripened field;
Nor ours to hear, on summer eves,
The reaper's song among the sheaves.

2 Yet ours the grateful service whence
Comes, day by day, the recompense;
The hope, the trust, the purpose stayed,
The fountain, and the noonday shade.

3 And were this life the utmost span,
The only end and aim of man.
Better the toil of fields like these
Than waking dream and slothful ease.

Tune—ROTHWELL.

1 Triumphant Zion! lift Thy head
From dust, and darkness, and the dead:
Though humbled long, awake at length.
And gird thee with thy Saviour's strength.

2 Put all thy beauteous garment on,
And let thy excellence be known;
Decked in the robes of righteousness,
The world thy glories shall confess.

3 No more shall foes unclean invade,
And fill thy hallowed walls with dread,
No more shall hell's insulting host
Their victory and thy sorrows boast.

4 God from on high has heard thy prayer,
His hand thy ruins shall repair:
Nor will thy watchful Monarch cease
To guard thee in eternal peace.

strong:
Oh, keep us till our spirits fly
To join the bright immortal throng! |

OLD SCOTCH MELODY.

1. Je - sus, the ver - y thought is sweet; In that dear name all heart - joys meet; But oh, than hon - ey sweet-er far, The glimps - es of... His pres - ence are. A - men.

2 Jesus, the hope of souls forlorn,
How good to them for sin that mourn!
To them that seek Thee, oh, how kind!
But what art Thou to them that find?

3 Jesus, Thou sweetness, pure, and blest,
Truth's fountain, light of souls distressed,
Surpassing all that heart requires,
Exceeding all that soul desires!

4 No tongue of mortal can express,
No letters write, its blessedness:
Alone who hath Thee in his heart
Knows, love of Jesus, what Thou art.

5 We follow Jesus now, and raise
The voice of prayer, the hymn of praise,
That He at last may make us meet
With Him to gain the heavenly seat.

J. M. Neale. Tr.

Tune—WARD.

1 Jesus, Thou joy of loving hearts,
Thou Fount of life, Thou Light of men,
From the best bliss that earth imparts
We turn unfilled to Thee again.

2 Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood;
Thou savest those that on Thee call;
To them that seek Thee, Thou art good,
To them that find Thee, all in all!

3 We taste Thee, O Thou living Bread,
And long to feast upon Thee still;

We drink of Thee, the Fountain Head,
And thirst our souls from Thee to fill.

4 Our restless spirits yearn for Thee,
Whene'er our changeful lot is cast;
Glad, when Thy gracious smile we see,
Blest, when our faith can hold Thee fast.

5 O Jesus, ever with us stay;
Make all our moments calm and bright;
Chase the dark night of sin away;
Shed o'er the world Thy holy light.

1. Lord, when we bend be - fore Thy throne And our con - fes - sions pour, Teach us to feel the sins we own And hate what we de - plore. A - men.

- 2 Our broken spirit pitying see;
True penitence impart;
Then let a kindling glance from Thee
Beam hope upon the heart.
- 3 When our responsive tongues essay
Their grateful hymns to raise,
Grant that our souls may join the lay
And mount to Thee in praise.

- 4 When we disclose our wants in prayer
May we our wills resign;
And not a thought our bosom share
That is not wholly Thine.
- 5 May faith each meek petition fill
And waft it to the skies,
And teach our hearts 'tis goodness still
That grants it or denies.

J. D. Carlyle. 1802.

Tune—MARTYRDOM.

- 1 There is a fountain filled with blood
Drawn from Emmanuel's veins,
And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,
Lose all their guilty stains.
- 2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there have I, as vile as he,
Washed all my sins away.
- 3 Dear dying Lamb, Thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,

Till all the ransomed church of God
Be saved, to sin no more.

- 4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.
- 5 Then in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing Thy power to save,
When this poor, lisping, stammering tongue
Lies silent in the grave.

How should our souls, on wings of love,

Till life, and love, and joy divine

| 3 Come, Lord, Thy love alone can raise
In us the heav'nly flame:
Then shall our lips resound Thy praise
Our hearts adore Thy name. | 5 Then shall our hearts enraptured say,
Come, great Redeemer, come!

Which God hath called His own:
With joy the summons we obey

With pure devotion glow. |

As here Thy servants throng
To breathe the humble, fervent prayer,
And pour the choral song. | 4 Let peace within her walls be found;
Let all her sons unite
To spread with holy zeal around
Her clear and shining light. |

Within Thy Church below: | 5 Great God, we hail the sacred day
Which Thou hast called Thine own;

Vouchsafe to me Thy grace.

3 The joy can ne'er be spoken,

Beside the cross expiring,

4 What language shall I borrow,
To thank Thee, dearest friend,
For this Thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end?
Oh make me Thine forever;
And should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never,
Outlive my love to Thee.

5 And when I am departing,
Oh, part not Thou from me;
When mortal pangs are darting,
Come, Lord, and set me free;

And when my heart must languish
Amidst the final throe,
Release me from mine anguish,
By Thine own pain and woe.

6 Be near me when I'm dying,
Oh, show Thy cross to me;
And for my succor flying,
Come, Lord, and set me free.

5 Fling out the banner! let it float
Skyward and seaward, high and wide,
Our glory, only in the cross;
Our only hope, the Crucified!

Seaward and skyward, let it shine:
Nor skill, nor might, nor merit ours;
We conquer only in that sign.

1. My... soul, be on thy guard; Ten thousand foes a - rise; The... hosts of sin are press - ing hard To draw thee from the skies. A - men.

2 Oh, watch, and fight, and pray!
The battle ne'er give o'er;
Renew it boldly every day,
And help divine implore.

3 Ne'er think the victory won,
Nor lay thine armor down:

Thy arduous work will not be done
Till thou obtain thy crown.

4 Fight on, my soul, till death
Shall bring thee to thy God!
He'll take thee, at thy parting breath,
Up to His blest abode.

G. Heath. 1751.

137 Tune—LABAN.

1 Sow in the morn thy seed,
At eve hold not thy hand;
To doubt and fear give thou no heed;
Broadcast it o'er the land.

2 And duly shall appear
In verdure, beauty, strength,
The tender blade, the stalk, the ear,
And the full corn at length.

3 Thou canst not toil in vain;
Cold, heat, and moist, and dry,
Shall foster and mature the grain
For garnerers in the sky.

4 Thence, when the glorious end,
The day of God, is come,
The angel-reapers shall descend,
And Heaven cry, "Harvest Home."

J. Montgomery. 1819.

138 Tune—LABAN.

1 O praise our God to-day,
His constant mercy bless,
Whose love hath helped us on our way,
And granted us success.

2 His arm the strength imparts
Our daily toil to bear;
His grace alone inspires our hearts,
Each other's load to share.

3 Oh, happiest work below,
Earnest of joy above,
To sweeten many a cup of woe,
By deeds of holy love!

4 Lord, may it be our choice
This blessed rule to keep,
"Rejoice with them that do rejoice,
And weep with them that weep."

H. W. Baker. 1861. A.B.

He gently clears thy way;
Wait thou His time, so shall this night
Soon end in joyous day.
- 3 Still heavy is thy heart?
Still sink thy spirit down?
Cast off the weight, let fear depart,
And every care be gone.

- 4 What though thou rulest not?
Yet Heaven, and earth, and hell
Proclaim, God sitteth on the throne
And ruleth all things well.
- 5 Let us, in life, in death,
Thy steadfast truth declare,
And publish, with our latest breath,
Thy love and guardian care.

Tune—THATCHER.

- 1 Dear Lord and Master mine,
Thy happy servant see;
My Conqueror, with what joy divine
Thy Captive clings to Thee.
- 2 I would not walk alone,
But still with Thee, my God;
At every step my blindness own,
And ask of Thee the road.
- 3 The weakness I enjoy
That casts me on Thy breast;

The conflicts that Thy strength employ
Make me divinely blest.

- 4 Dear Lord and Master mine,
Still keep Thy servant true;
My Guardian and my Guide divine,
Bring, bring Thy pilgrim through.
- 5 My Conqueror and my King,
Still keep me in Thy train:
And with Thee Thy glad captive bring,
When Thou return'st to reign.

142 Tune—UNIVERSITY COLLEGE.

1 Hark! my soul, it is the Lord,
'Tis thy Saviour, hear His word:
Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee:
"Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou Me?"

2 "I delivered thee when bound,
And, when bleeding, healed thy wound,
Sought thee wandering, set thee right,
Turn'd thy darkness into light.

3 "Can a woman's tender care
Cease towards the child she bare?
Yes, she may forgetful be:
Yet will I remember thee.

4 "Mine is an unchanging love,
Higher than the heights above,
Deeper than the depths beneath,
Free and faithful, strong as death.

5 "Thou shalt see my glory soon,
When the work of grace is done;
Partner of My Throne shalt be:
Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou Me?"

6 Lord, it is my chief complaint,
That my love is weak and faint;
Yet I love Thee and adore:
Oh, for grace to love Thee more!

Thy holy church, O God!

And tempests are abroad; [ing her,

1 O God, unseen, yet ever near,
Thy presence may we feel;
And thus, inspired with holy fear,
Before Thine altar kneel.

2 Here may the faithful people know
The blessings of Thy love;
The streams that through the desert flow.
The manna from above.

3 We come, obedient to Thy word,
To feast on heav'nly food:
Our meat, the body of the Lord;
Our drink, His precious blood.

For we, O God, are Thine;
And go rejoicing on our way,

 My God, my heaven, my all:

4 There shall I bathe my weary soul
 In seas of heavenly rest,
 And not a wave of trouble roll
 Across my peaceful breast.

L. Watts. 1707.

146 Tune—ARLINGTON.

1 Give me the wings of faith, to rise
 Within the veil, and see
 The saints above, how great their joys,
 How bright their glories be.

2 Once they were mourning here below,
 And wet their couch with tears;
 They wrestled hard, as we do now,
 With sins, and doubts, and fears.

3 I ask them whence their victory came?
 They, with united breath,

Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
 Their triumph to His death.

4 They marked the footsteps that He trod;
 His zeal inspired their breast:
 And following their incarnate God,
 Possess the promised rest.

5 Our glorious Leader claims our praise,
 For His own pattern given.
 While the long cloud of witnesses
 Show the same path to heaven.

And raise my head, and cheer my heart.

3 If in this darksome wild I stray,
Be Thou my light, be Thou my way;
No foes, no violence I fear,
No harm, while Thou, my God, art near.

Tune—SWEDEN.

1 All praise to Thee, eternal Lord,
Clothed in a garb of flesh and blood;
Choosing a manger for Thy throne,
While worlds on worlds are Thine alone.

Forlorn and lowly is Thy birth,
That we may rise to heaven from earth.

2 Once did the skies before Thee bow:
A virgin's arms contain Thee now;
Angels, who did in Thee rejoice,
Now listen for Thine infant voice.

4 Thou comest in the darksome night,
To make us children of the light.
To make us, in the realms divine,
Like Thine own angels, round Thee shine.

3 A little child. Thou art our guest,
That weary ones in Thee may rest:

5 All this for us Thy love hath done;
By this to Thee our love is won:
For this we tune our cheerful lays,
And shout our thanks in ceaseless praise.

Where Jesus reigns alone;

3 A humble, lowly, contrite heart,
Believing, true, and clean,
Which neither life nor death can part
From Him that dwells within;

4 A heart in every thought renewed,
And full of love divine,
Perfect, and right, and pure, and good,
A copy, Lord, of Thine.

5 Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart:
Come quickly from above:
Write Thy new name upon my heart,

C. Wesley 1742.

150 Tune—SELBY.

1 Thou art the way, to Thee alone
From sin and death we flee,
And he, who would the Father seek,
Must seek Him, Lord, by Thee.

2 Thou art the Truth: Thy Word alone
True wisdom can impart;
Thou only canst inform the mind,
And purify the heart.

3 Thou art the Life: the rending tomb
Proclaims Thy conquering arm;
And those, who put their trust in Thee,
Nor death nor hell shall harm.

4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life;

That Truth to keep, that Life to win,

1. Watts. 1719.

152 Tune—OLD HUNDREDTH.

- 1 With one consent let all the earth
To God their cheerful voices raise;
Glad homage pay with awful mirth,
And sing before Him songs of praise.
- 2 Convinced that He is God alone,
From Whom both we and all proceed;
We, whom He chooses for His own,
The flock that He vouchsafes to feed.
- 3 Oh, enter then His temple gate,
Thence to His courts devoutly press;
And still your grateful hymns repeat,
And still His Name with praises bless.
- 4 For He's the Lord, supremely good,
His mercy is forever sure:
His truth, which always firmly stood,
To endless ages shall endure.

Tate & Brady. 1638.

153 Tune—OLD HUNDREDTH.

Through all the millions of the skies—
That song of triumph which records
That all the earth is now the Lord's!

Obedient, mighty God, to Thee!
- And, over land and stream and main,
Wave Thou the scepter of Thy reign!

Let host to host the triumph tell,
That not one rebel heart remains,
But over all the Saviour reigns!

His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

3 Let the sweet hope that thou art mine

A. Steele. 1760.

159 Tune—NAOMI

1 Prayer is the soul's sincere desire,
 Uttered or unexpressed;
 The motion of a hidden fire
 That trembles in the breast.

2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
 The falling of a tear,
 The upward glancing of the eye,
 When none but God is near.

3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
 That infant lips can try;
 Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
 The Majesty on High.

4 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,
 Returning from his ways:
 While angels in their songs rejoice,
 And cry "Behold, he prays!"

5 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
 The Christian's native air;
 His watchword at the gates of death:
 He enters heaven with prayer.

6 O Thou, by whom we come to God,
 The life, the truth, the way!
 The path of prayer Thyself hast trod;
 Lord, teach us how to pray.

The oil of gladness on our heads,
A place than all beside more sweet;
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.
- 3 There is a spot where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;

- Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.
- 4 There, there, on eagle's wing we soar,
And time and sense seem all no more,
And heaven comes down, our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

H. Stowell. 1828.

161 Tune—RETREAT.

- 1 Jesus, where'er Thy people meet,
There they behold Thy mercy-seat;
Where'er they seek Thee Thou art found,
And every place is hallowed ground.
- 2 For Thou, within no walls confined,
Inhabitest the humble mind;
Such ever bring Thee where they come,
And going, take Thee to their home.
- 3 Great Shepherd of Thy chosen few,
Thy former mercies here renew:
- 4 Here to our waiting hearts proclaim
The sweetness of Thy saving name.
- 4 Here may we prove the power of prayer,
To strengthen faith and sweeten care,
To teach our faint desires to rise,
And bring all heaven before our eyes.
- 5 Lord, we are few, but thou art near
Nor short Thine arm, nor deaf Thine ear:
Oh, rend the heavens, come quickly down,
And make a thousand hearts Thine own.

And for His dwelling and His throne
Chooseth the pure in heart.

- 1 I've found the pearl of greatest price,
My heart doth sing for joy;
And sing I must: for Christ is mine,

My great High-Priest before the throne,
My King of heavenly might.
3 For He indeed is Lord of lords,
And He the King of kings;

DULCE CARMEN. 8s, 7s. 6l.

MICHAEL HAYDN.

1. Lead us, hea-v'nly Fa-ther, lead us O'er the world's tem-pes-tuous sea;

Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us, For we have no help but Thee:

Yet pos-sess-ing ev-ery bless-ing, If.. our God our Fa-ther be. A-men.

2 Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us;
All our weakness Thou dost know;
Thou didst tread this earth before us;
Thou didst feel its keenest woe;
Long and dreary, faint and weary,
Through the desert Thou didst go.

3 Spirit of our God, descending,
Fill our hearts with heavenly joy;
Love with every passion blending,
Pleasure that can never cloy:
Thus provided, pardoned, guided,
Nothing can our peace destroy.

J. Edmeston. 1821.

Tune—DULCE CARMEN.

1 Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;
To His feet thy tribute bring;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Evermore His praises sing:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise the everlasting King.

2 Praise Him for His grace and favor
To our fathers in distress;
Praise Him still the same as ever,
Slow to chide and swift to bless:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glorious in His faithfulness.

3 Father-like He tends and spares us;
Well our feeble frame He knows;
In His hands He gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Widely yet His mercy flows.

4 Angels in the height adore Him!
Ye behold Him face to face;
Saints triumphant bow before Him!
Gathered in from every race.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise with us the God of grace.

Let us all Thy life receive;
Suddenly return, and never,
Never more Thy temples leave.
Thee we would be always blessing;
Serve Thee as Thy hosts above;
Pray, and praise Thee without ceasing,
Glory in Thy perfect love.

4 Finish, then, Thy new creation,

Pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see Thy great salvation,
Perfectly secured by Thee,
Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heaven we take our place;
Till we cast our crowns before Thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

3 O love, how cheering is thy ray!
All pain before thy presence flies:
Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away,
Where'er thy healing beams arise.
O Jesus, nothing may I see,
Nothing desire or seek, but Thee.

4 Still let Thy love point out my way:
What wondrous things Thy love hath
Still lead me, lest I go astray; [wrought!
Direct my word, inspire my thought;
And if I fall, soon may I hear
Thy voice, and know that love is near.

5 In suffering, be Thy love my peace:
In weakness, be Thy love my power;
And when the storms of life shall cease,

And all my steps to Thee-ward tend!

Chase this self-will through all my heart,
Through all its latent mazes there;
Make me Thy duteous child, that I
Ceaseless may "Abba, Father," cry.

Speak to my inmost soul, and say,
"I am thy Love, thy God, thy All."
To feel Thy power, to hear Thy voice
To taste Thy love, be all my choice.

1. O Lord, how hap-py should we be If we could cast our care on Thee,

If.. we from self could rest; And feel at heart that One a - bove

In per - feet wis - dom, per-fect love, Is.. work-ing for the best. A - men.

2 How far from this our daily life,
How oft disturbed by anxious strife,
By sudden wild alarms;
Oh, could we but relinquish all
Our earthly props, and simply fall
On Thine Almighty arms!

3 Could we but kneel and cast our load,
E'en while we pray, upon our God,
Then rise with lightened cheer;
Sure that the Father, who is nigh
To still the famished raven's cry,
Will hear in that we fear.

4 We cannot trust Him as we should;
So chafes weak nature's restless mood
To cast its peace away;
But birds and flowerets round us preach,
All, all the present evil teach
Sufficient for the day.

5 Lord, make the faithless hearts of ours
Such lessons learn from birds and flowers;
Make them from self to cease,
Leave all things to a Father's will,
And taste, before him lying still,
E'en in affliction, peace.

- 1 How beauteous are their feet,
Who stand on Zion's hill:
Who bring salvation on their tongues,
And words of peace reveal!
- 2 How charming is their voice;
How sweet their tidings are!
"Zion, behold thy Saviour-King,
He reigns and triumphs here."
- 3 How happy are our ears
That hear this joyful sound,
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found.

- 4 How blessèd are our eyes
That see this heavenly light;
Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight.
- 5 The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ:
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.

Their Saviour and their God.

Shed o'er them all Thy gifts divine:

May do Thy will with love like Thine.
- 4 Blest Spirit, in their hearts abide,
And give them grace to watch and pray;
That as they seek Thy flock to guide,

Grant them, enduring to the end,

Ah, if with them the world might pass, astray,
Into the dear Christ's life of sacrifice!

Anoint them with the spirit of Thy Son.
Theirs, not a jewelled crown, a blood-stained sword;
Theirs, by sweet love, for Christ a kingdom won.
- 5 Make them apostles, heralds of Thy cross;
Forth may they go to tell all realms Thy grace;
Inspired of Thee, may they count all but loss,
And stand at last with joy before Thy face.

1 Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journeys run;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

With every morning sacrifice.

Dwell on His love, with sweetest song;

And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on His name.

Tune - ZION.

1 Saints of God! the dawn is bright'ning, 3 Broad the shadow of our nation,
Token of our coming Lord;
O'er the earth the field is whit'ning;
Londer rings the Master's word:
Pray for reapers
In the harvest of the Lord!

2 Now, O Lord, fulfil Thy pleasure,
Breathe upon Thy chosen band,
And, with Pentecostal measure,
Send forth reapers o'er our land:
Faithful reapers
Gathering sheaves for Thy right hand.

3 Eager millions hither roam;
Lo! they wait for Thy salvation:
Come, Lord Jesus, quickly come;
By Thy Spirit
Bring Thy ransomed people home.

4 Soon shall end the time of weeping,
Soon the reaping time will come;
Heaven and earth together keeping
God's eternal Harvest-Home.

1 Kingdoms and thrones to God belong;
Crown Him, ye nations, in your song;

Tune—MISSIONARY CHANT.

1 Look from Thy sphere of endless day,
O God of mercy and of might!
In pity look on those who stray,
Benighted in this land of light.
2 In peopled valed, in lonely glen,
In crowded mart, by steam or sea,
How many of the sons of men
Hear not the message sent from Thee!
3 Send forth Thy heralds, Lord, to call [old,
The thoughtless young, the hardened

A scattered, homeless flock, till all
Be gathered to Thy peaceful fold.

4 Send them Thy mighty word to speak,
Till faith shall dawn and doubt depart,
To awe the bold, to stay the weak,
And bind and heal the broken heart.

5 Then all these wastes, a dreary scene
That makes us sadden as we gaze,
Shall grow with living waters green,
And lift to heaven the voice of praise.

With all His strength endued:
And take, to arm you for the fight,

And all your conflicts past,
Ye may o'ercome, through Christ alone,
And stand complete at last.

Wrestle, and fight, and pray;
Tread all the powers of darkness down,
And win the well-fought day.

Tune—SILVER STREET.

1 Dear Saviour, we are Thine,
By everlasting bands;
Our names, our hearts, we would resign:
Our souls are in Thy hands.

2 To Thee we still would cleave
With ever-growing zeal:
If millions tempt us Christ to leave,
They never shall prevail.

3 Thy Spirit shall unite
Our souls to Thee, our head;

Shall form in us Thine image bright,
That we Thy paths may tread.

4 Death may our souls divide
From these abodes of clay;
But love shall keep us near Thy side,
Through all the gloomy way.

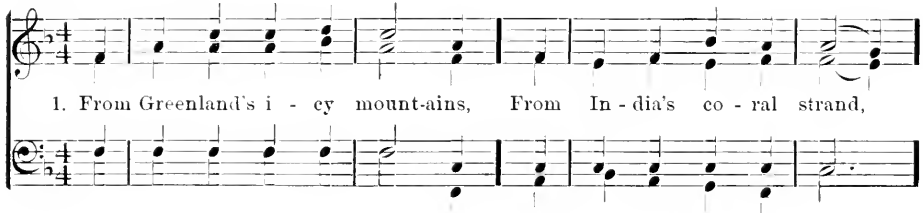

5 Since Christ and we are one,
Why should we doubt or fear?
If He in heaven has fixed His throne,
He'll fix His members there.

From many an an - cient riv - er, From many a palm - y plain,

Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
Though every prospect pleases,

The gifts of God are strown;

- 3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,
Shall we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?

Salvation! oh, salvation!
Thy joyful sound proclaim.
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.

- 4 Waft, waft, ye winds, His story,
And you, ye waters, roll.
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole;
Till o'er our ransomed nature
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign!

- 2 Teach me some melodious sonnet,
Sung by flaming tongues above;
Praise the mount; I'm fixed upon it,
Mount of God's unchanging love!
- 3 Here I raise my Ebenezer;
Hither by Thy help I'm come;
And I hope, by Thy good pleasure;
Safely to arrive at home.
- 4 Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;

- He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed with precious blood.
- 5 Oh, to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be!
Let that grace now, like a fetter,
Bind my wandering heart to Thee.
- 6 Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it;
Prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart: O take and seal it,
Seal it from Thy courts above.

- 1 Call Jehovah thy salvation,
Rest beneath th'Almighty's shade;
In His secret habitation

Thou shalt dread no hidden snare;
Guile nor violence can harm thee,
In eternal safeguard there.

Thou on God hast set thy love,
With the wings of His protection

2 When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
Never shall the cross forsake me:
Lo! it glows with peace and joy.

3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance streaming,
Adds new lustre to the day.

4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified;
Peace is there that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

5 In the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

J. Bowring. 1825.

Tune—RATHBUN.

1 Sweet the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross I spend,
Life, and health, and peace possessing
From the sinner's dying friend.

2 Here I rest, for ever viewing
Mercy's stream in streams of blood;
Precious drops, my soul bedewing,
Plead and claim my peace with God.

3 Truly blessèd is this station,
Low before His Cross to lie,

While I see divine compassion
Pleading in His languid eye.

4 Here it is I find my heaven,
While upon the Lamb I gaze;
Love I much? I've much forgiven,—
I'm a miracle of grace.

5 Lord, in loving contemplation
Fix my heart and eyes on Thee,
Till I taste Thy full salvation,
And Thine unveiled glories see.

From earth to realms of endless day.

And brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm.

Nor let thy foolish pride rebel;
Thy Lord for thee the cross endured,

4 Take up thy cross and follow Christ,
Nor think till death to lay it down;

May hope to wear the glorious crown.

1 One sole baptismal sign,
 One Lord below, above,
 One faith, one hope divine,
 One only watchword, love;
 From different temples though it rise,
 One song ascendeth to the skies.

 One Priest before the throne,
 The slain, the risen Son,

Redeemer, Lord alone;
 And sighs from contrite hearts that spring
 Our chief, our choicest offering.

 Her broken frame renew;
 Then shall thy perfect will be done

Tune—DUKE STREET.

1 God of my life, to Thee I call;
Afflicted, at Thy feet I fall:
When the great water-floods prevail,
Leave not my trembling heart to fail.

2 Friend of the friendless and the faint,
Where should I lodge my deep complaint?
Where but with Thee, whose open door
Invites the helpless and the poor?

3 Did ever mourner plead with Thee,
And Thou refuse that mourner's plea?

Does not the word still fixed remain,
That none shall seek Thy face in vain?

4 That were a grief I could not bear,
Didst Thou not hear and answer prayer:
But a prayer-hearing, answering God
Supports me under every load.

5 Poor though I am, despised, forgot,
Yet God, my God, forgets me not;
And he is safe, and must succeed,
For whom the Lord vouchsafes to plead.

4 Jesus, my Shepherd, Husband, Friend,

My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.

5 Weak is the effort of my heart,

1 Come, every pious heart
That loves the Saviour's name,
Your noblest powers exert
To celebrate His fame;
Tell all above, and all below,
The debt of love to Him you owe.

2 From the dark grave He rose,
The mansions of the dead,
And thence His mighty foes

In glorious triumph led:
Up through the sky the Conqueror rode,
And reigns on high, the Saviour, God.

3 Jesus, we ne'er can pay
The debt we owe Thy love;
Yet tell us how we may
Our gratitude approve.
Our hearts, our all to Thee we give;
The gift, though small, Thou wilt receive.

1 Hail the day that sees Him rise,
To His throne above the skies;
Christ, awhile to mortals given,
Reascends His native heaven.
2 There the glorious triumph waits:
Lift your heads, eternal gates:
Wide unfold the radiant scene;
Take the King of Glory in.
3 Him though highest heaven receives,
Still He loves the earth He leaves
Though returning to His throne,
Still He calls mankind His own.

4 See, He lifts His hands above;
See, He shows the prints of love;
Hark! His gracious lips bestow
Blessings on His church below.

5 Still for us His death He pleads;

SEGUR. 8, 7, 8, 7, 4, 7.

J. P. HOLBROOK. (1822-1888.)

1. Guide me, O.... Thou great Je - ho - vah, Pil - grim thro'.. this bar - ren land;.. I am weak,.. but Thou art might - y; Hold me with.. Thy pow'r - ful hand; Bread of heav - en, Bread of heav - en, Feed me till... I want no more. A - men.

2 Open Thou the crystal fountain
Whence the healing streams do flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through;
Strong Deliverer,
Be Thou still my Strength and Shield.

3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death! and hell's destruction!
Land me safe on Canaan's side;
Songs of praises
I will ever give to Thee.

1. Sing to the Lord a joy - ful song;... Lift up your hearts, your voice - es raise; To us His gra - cious gifts be - long, To Him our songs of love and praise. A - men.

2 For life and love, for rest and food,
For daily help and nightly care,
Sing to the Lord, for He is good,
And praise His name, for it is fair:—

3 For strength to those who on Him wait,
His truth to prove, His will to do,
Praise ye our God, for He is great,
Trust in His name, for it is true:—

4 For joys unfold that daily move
Round those who love His sweet employ,
Sing to our God, for He is love,
Exalt His name, for it is joy:—

5 For life below, with all its bliss,
And for that life, more pure and high,
That inner life, which over this
Shall ever shine, and never die.

J. S. B. Monsell. (1818—1875.)

1 My dear Redeemer, and my Lord,
I read my duty in Thy word;
But in Thy life the law appears,
Drawn out in living characters.

2 Such was Thy truth and such Thy zeal,
Such deference to Thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.

3 Cold mountains and the midnight air
Witnessed the fervor of Thy prayer;
The desert Thy temptations knew,
Thy conflict and Thy victory too.

4 Be Thou my pattern; make me bear
More of Thy gracious image here;
Then God, the Judge, shall own my name
Among the followers of the Lamb.

full of Thee, Thy light, Thy love, Thy maj - es - ty. A - men.

2 Loud hallelujahs to Thy name

Of martyrs make of Thee their boast.

4 The holy church in every place
Throughout the world exalts Thy praise;
Both heaven and earth do worship Thee,

Highly exalt and honor Thee;
Thy name we worship and adore,
World without end for evermore.

Tune—SEASONS.

1 Thus far the Lord has led me on;
Thus far His power prolongs my days;
And every evening shall make known
Some fresh memorial of His grace.

2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home,
But He forgives my follies past,
And gives me strength for days to come.

3 I lay my body down to sleep;
Peace is the pillow for my head;
While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.

4 Thus when the night of death shall come,
My flesh shall rest beneath the ground,
And wait Thy voice to break my tomb,
With sweet salvation in the sound.

2 Shall God invite you from above?

Tune—SAMSON.

1 Oh, do not let the word depart,
And close thine eyes against the light;
Poor sinner, harden not thy heart:
Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?

2 To-morrow's sun may never rise
To bless thy long-deluded sight;

This is the time; oh, then be wise!
Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?

3 Our God in pity lingers still;
And wilt thou thus His love requite?
Renounce at length thy stubborn will;
Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?

Tune—GRACE CHURCH.

1 Come, Holy Ghost, Creator blest,
Vouchsafe within our souls to rest;
Come with Thy grace and heavenly aid,
And fill the hearts which Thou hast made.

2 To Thee, the Comforter, we cry;
To Thee, the gift of God most High;
The fount of life, the fire of love,
The soul's anointing from above.

3 The sacred, sevenfold grace is Thine,
Dead Finger of the Hand divine:

The promise of the Father Thon!

Every hour and everywhere!
For His sake, whose blood I plead.
Hear me in my hour of need:
Only hide not now Thy face,

Leave me not again to stray;

Leave me not the tempter's prey:
Fix my heart on things above:
Make me happy in Thy love.

3 Hear and save me, gracious Lord!

Wash me from the stain of sin,

2 One, the light of God's own presence,
O'er His ransomed people shed,
Chasing far the gloom and terror,
Brightening all the path we tread:
One, the object of our journey,
One, the faith which never tires,
One, the earnest looking forward,
One, the hope our God inspires.

3 One, the strain the lips of thousands
Lift as from the heart of one;
One the conflict, one the peril,
One, the march in God begun:

One, the gladness of rejoicing
On the far eternal shore,
Where the One Almighty Father
Reigns in love for evermore.

4 Onward, therefore, pilgrim brothers,
Onward with the Cross our aid!
Bear its shame, and fight its battle,
Till we rest beneath its shade!
Soon shall come the great awaking:
Soon the rending of the tomb;
Then, the scattering of all shadows,
And the end of toil and gloom!

And greet th'archangel's warning,
To meet the Saviour in the skies,

No gloomy fears their souls dismay
His presence sheds eternal day
On those prepared to meet Him.

3 Far over space, to distant spheres,
The lightnings are prevailing;
Th'ungodly rise, and all their tears
And sighs are unavailing:
The day of grace is past and gone;
Trembling they stand before the throne,
And unprepared to meet Him.

4 Stay, fancy, stay, and close thy wings,
Repress thy flight to daring;
One wondrous sight my comfort brings,
The Judge my nature wearing.
Beneath His cross I view the day
When heaven and earth shall pass away,
And thus prepare to meet Him.

2 What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered
Was all for sinners' gain;
Mine, mine was the transgression,
But Thine the deadly pain.
Lo, here, I fall, my Saviour!
'Tis I deserve Thy place;
Look on me with Thy favor,
Vouchsafe to me Thy grace.

3 The joy can ne'er be spoken,
Above all joys beside,
When in Thy body broken
I thus with safety hide.
My Lord of life, desiring
Thy glory now to see,
Beside the cross expiring,
I'd breathe my soul to Thee.

4 What language shall I borrow,
To thank Thee, dearest friend,
For this Thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end?

Oh make me Thine forever;
And should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never,
Outlive my love to Thee.

5 And when I am departing,
Oh, part not Thou from me;
When mortal pangs are darting,
Come, Lord, and set me free;
And when my heart must languish
Amidst the final throes,
Release me from mine anguish,
By Thine own pain and woe.

2 Zion hears the watchman singing,
Her heart with deep delight is springing,
She wakes, she rises from her gloom;
Forth her Bridegroom comes, all-glorious,
In grace arrayed, by truth victorious.

All hail, Incarnate Lord,

Our crown, and our reward!

Alleluia!

We haste along in pomp of song,

And gladsome join the marriage throng.

3 Lamb of God, the heavens adore Thee,
And men and angels sing before Thee,

With harp and cymbal's clearest tone.

By the pearly gates in wonder

We stand and swell the voice of thunder,

That echoes round Thy dazzling throne.

No vision ever brought,

No ear hath ever caught,

Such bliss and joy:

We raise the song, we swell the throng,

To praise Thee ages all along.

- 1 Lord, let me know mine end * and the number | of my | days. || that I may be certified how | long I | have to | live.
- 2 Behold, Thou hast made my days as it were a | span ' — | long. || and mine age is even as nothing in respect of Thee, * and verily every man living is | al-to- |
geth-er | vanity.
- 3 For man walketh in a vain shadow * and disquieteth him- | self in | vain; || he
heapeth up riches, and cannot tell | who shall | gath-er | them.
- 4 And now, Lord, what | is my | hope? || truly my | hope is | even ' in | Thee.
- 5 Deliver me from all | mine of- | fences, || and make me not a re- | buke ' — . unto
' the | foolish.
- 6 When Thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, * Thou makest his beauty to consume away * like as it were a moth | fretting ' a | garment; | every man |
there-fore | is but | vanity.
- 7 Hear my prayer, O Lord, * and with Thine ears con- | sider ' my | calling; || hold
not Thy | peace ' — | at my | tears;
- 8 For I am a stranger with Thee | and a | sojourner, || as | all my | fa-thers | were.
- *9 O spare me a little * that I may re- | cover ' my | strength; || before I go hence | and be | no more | seen.
- Glor-y be to the Father, | and ' to the | Son, || and | to the | Ho-ly | Ghost.
- As it was in the beginning, * is now and | ev-er | shall be, || world without | end. ' — |
